Closing Song Hymn #112 "Jesus, Name Above All Names"

Missionaries of the Week: Don & Nancy Rempel

*We are preparing a 39 yr. old Ir_nian believer, M., to be baptized. Since his English is limited, his girlfriend, B., an Ir_nian believer, who speaks Good English, is serving as our translator. We cannot adequately express our joy, dismay, and wonder at the unfolding of these events. *M. revealed that he wants to be a pastor to explain these Truths to others! So cool! Persecution, even death, is a real possibility for this couple if their story leaks out to the wrong people in Ir_n. Pray that nothing quenches the working of the Holy Spirit in this amazing story. *The forest fire smoke engulfing much of the west coast has shrouded our skies for days. It's like being at a never-ending campfire, but not voluntarily. We are also suffering a historic drought in our valley. Pray for relief. *Our son, Chris, and his lawyer have submitted their demand letter to American Family Insurance for compensation for the medical expenses, suffering, and long-term disability issues to Chris from his May 2019 car accident. Pray for God's justice to prevail.

Message

Paul Carpenter

"Repentance from the Perspective of the FEBC"

Acts 17:30; 2 Peter 3:9

This week pray for the FELLOWSHIP FOCUS. Pray that God will direct our vision for the FEBC's magazine. Pray that our new editor will settle into her new role quickly. Pray that our readers will benefit from the articles we present. Pray that we will have ample contributors that are willing to share their wisdom. The new Editor is Jennifer Kopsa and the Publications Specialist is Kaileen Jones.
