Missionaries of the Week: Vic & Gwen Flaming

*Gwen had her six-month check-up with her oncologist surgeon on Friday, and that went very well. The doctor was very pleased and "graduated" Gwen from her care.

*After six months of working through the process with Christian Healthcare Ministries, we finally received full reimbursement for the medical procedures Vic had done on his hip last year. It was a toss up at times. Which was more painful – the hip or the red tape? *Vic's hip is still very painful and limits his activities in many ways. Pray that we can get this resolved in the fall if at all possible. *We are in the middle of another Sharpening Your Interpersonal Skills – Online course. Pray that the missionaries taking the course from Asia, the USA, Latin America and Europe will all benefit from this opportunity to grow to be more like Christ. *Gwen is preparing for several workshops she plans to be leading later this year in Missouri and North Carolina. Pray that she will be able to find the physical and mental strength to do a good job of preparation. *Vic's parents are struggling with being at the Heritage Care Center. This puts additional stress on us and Vic's siblings who are engaging by long distance. Pray that Dad & Mom can find peace and that we can find the strength we need.

There will be no Corporate Prayer this evening.
