Missionaries of the Week: Vic & Gwen

*Praise the Lord for good health. We are both feeling better physically than we have for at least a year and a half. Praise that Gwen's medication to reduce the possibility of the cancer coming back are not having any stronger side effects.

*Praise the Lord for His continuing faithfulness as our Provider - spiritually as well as physically. Praise that we have great spiritual fellowship here at Jansen Bible Church. *We will be sharing at one of our partner churches in central Kansas on Feb 26th. Pray that Vic will be able to finish preparing the message that he will be sharing, according to what the Father wants him to share. *We are facing some stiff deadlines for the continued certification of the mission coach training program that we do with Coaching Mission International. Pray that we can submit all the documentation and various recordings on time. *Vic is scheduled to facilitate a Sharpening Your Interpersonal Skills - Online course in April. We still need some additional participants for this course. Pray that the Father will lead missionaries and ministry leaders to take this opportunity to learn and grow to live more like our Lord as His disciples. *Thanks for partnering with us.
