Missionaries of the Week: Garrett & Joanna Schlake

*A couple weeks ago our new colleague, Qiqi (pronounced Chichi), arrived in Toulouse! She will be working alongside us with a focus on international students having been an international student herself in Toulouse. She became a Christian while in high school in China and grew while involved in the GBU in France. *We started a new bi-weekly training for our Christian students. This includes training that relates to their specific context, while also building a community that can encourage and pray for one-another. *Currently in Toulouse there are two groups, and one has been flourishing these past two months, going from 4 to 8 students on average. The other group has been having issues with many students saying they want to come but backing out at the last minute. Thankfully the student leaders haven’t given up hope! *One of them is Oskar. He has grown a ton this past semester! During our weekly meetings he always wants to challenge himself to go further into the text and doesn’t shy away from the difficult questions the Bible or I pose to him. Stanislas has taken on the role of regional student delegate and is doing a great job encouraging the students in Toulouse and the rest of the region! *Things are looking good for the region, but Joanna is still looking to start GBU groups in other cities besides Bordeaux and Toulouse. She was in another city yesterday where we hope to start a group soon! *Our local church is doing better as of late! We finally have a fixed vision, and members are taking on more responsibilities.
