Closing Song “You Are My God”

Missionaries of the Week: Garrett & Joanna Schlake

*Following Christmas break, we had an all-day evangelism training online for some of our Christian students around the region. We then invited students from Toulouse to our place to enjoy time together. We also talk about plans to do what is called a Marc l’Expérience. *At the end of April, we are planning to do a play which tells the whole story of the Gospel of Mark in an interactive/engaging manner. The focus is on evangelism, and it is one activity where we see the most fruit. Pray we can find all the actors we need. We haven’t performed this play in Toulouse in 15+ years. Stan will be playing the role of Jesus and has to memorize every single word Jesus says throughout Mark’s Gospel, so another prayer is that he would be able to do so and grow in his faith in the process! *At our Christmas party we had a great evening together full of a white-elephant gift exchange, a quiz on all the Christmas misconceptions/urban legends, and some delicious tartiflette! *I asked our pastor, Samuel, to disciple me a few months back, and he’s been training me on how to preach better in French. I even presided our church service a few weeks ago. *After more than 2 months of lung problems I can finally breathe normally without any issues! *We have found students to take on the role of student leaders, and other potential ones for the future! Student involvement for regional and national events has been better recently than in the past 5+ years. *I officially have a French driver’s license!

Please join us for Corporate Prayer at 7:45 PM.
