Missionaries of the Week: Garrett & Joanna Schlake

*At the end of June, we had one of our two intensive training camps for the GBU.

*The camp is always packed with courses on theology, doctrine, church history, apologetics, evangelism and many other theoretical and practical trainings to help prepare our students for ministry during and after their studies. *We had our last student weekend for the year in June and it was my favorite thus far. Usually, we hold them in a church, but the one we were using lost power, so we had to move it to our apartment. It was a tight fit, but it made for a more relax feel which proved a huge blessing. We often try to have a testimony evening the last night, but normally everyone is too uncomfortable to share. Not this time! Everyone shared and what I loved the most was how encouraging they were to one another as they told how Christ saved them. *Joanna and I were able to get time with the folks while visiting Greece together. It was a great time full of amazing food and better company! We just so happened to pick the trip with the most Biblical cities on it, including Athens, Philippi, Thessalonica, and Ephesus. *Summer break has begun, and there are many new projects we'll be starting next year, like a monthly evening for the Christians in our groups to gather for mutual encouragement, prayer and maybe some light trainings/Bible study. Please pray we're able to put in place whatever the Lord would allow to stick.
