Missionaries of the Week: Garrett & Joanna Schlake

*PRAYERS ANSWERED: Qiqi arrived found all her funding, an apartment and arrived safely in Toulouse. *Student leaders are understanding better the vision of the GBU and being more open on sharing their faith with their classmates. *Things have been calm politically/socially as of late in France, which is a nice change of pace. *PRAYER REQUESTS: For Qiqi to acclimate well to a new city and work life, and that Joanna and I would also adapt well to having a new colleague which will change our dynamic! Also, prayer for Qiqi’s ministry to international students. *One of our groups was kicked out of their meeting area for being a Christian student group. Please pray this will be overturned! This isn’t that surprising with laïcité in France, but students are contacting those with more authority to see if this decision can be changed. *Please pray for all the organization for coming evenings, weekends, conferences and camps! *PERSONAL PRAYER REQUESTS: The elder boards recently asked me if I would consider becoming an elder in our local church. I was humbled to be asked, and I would love prayer to do honor to God in how I handle this new responsibility. I am currently doing the year long process of seeing what this entails before being officially elected as an elder. Joanna and I will be visiting her relatives in the Philippines this summer. This will be my first time there, so please pray I make a good first impression! Many of them would be considered “culturally Christian” but not practicing, so this would also be a great chance to share the Gospel! Please also pray for all the preparations for our trip to the U.S. this coming summer (Late May – Early July)!
