Missionaries of the Week: Garrett & Joanna Schlake

*Our bi-weekly meeting to build community within the Christians students of the GBU of Toulouse has been going well. There is still a lack of engagement and self-motivation from this generation, but when they are together, they quickly form deep bonds. *Two of our student leaders, Stanislas & Élisabeth, announced to us last month that they are planning to do the 2 year GBU internship after they finish their studies. They built it up like it was a huge surprise only to realize that Joanna and I have expected this since the first year we met them. *Our new colleague, Qiqi (pronounced Chichi), arrived in Toulouse! She became a Christian while in high school in China and grew in her faith while involved in the GBU in France. *Two weeks ago I directed a ski camp with 18 campers. It was an exhausting week full of unforeseen illnesses, a trip to the hospital, and a car accident, but God still made use of it and no major injuries were sustained. *The camp was made up of mostly Christians who were quite young in their faith. One student, Axel, caused some problems for me early, but by the end of camp he had grown a ton! He even went out of his way multiple times to help others and during the testimony evening shared how he finally understood that his life's goal was to glorify God! *We had our student leader weekend a month ago where we studied the book of Habakkuk. It was an intense weekend with the inductive Bible study and workshops on difficult subjects like suffering, but I and the students took it all on and stayed in good humor! *Please pray for all the preparations for our trip to the US this coming summer.
