Missionaries of the Week: Vic & Gwen Flaming

*Praise the Lord for an excellent mission coach training experience in Phoenix last month as we worked together with the other coach trainers and engaged with the new coach trainees.

*Praise the Lord for another excellent quarter of online SYIS training as we have seen real impact in the lives of the missionaries who participated.

*Pray for several events that we will be taking part in over the next few months. Some will require a bit of travel, and some are online. Pray that we can be well prepared for our part in each opportunity.

*Pray that the funding will come in for our special project of getting some of the CMI training certified. Pray also that we will be able to do this project well, and in a timely fashion.

*We believe strongly in the impact and importance of professional level coaching in missions. We have embarked on a project that will help one of our partner organizations, Coaching Mission International, to gain certification for some of their training through the International Coach Federation. Of course, there is a cost involved in this process, both in time and finances. We are happy to give of our time to make this happen, and if you are interested in also investing in this project, we would love to hear from you. We believe that this is an important kingdom project and need your prayers and support.

Closing

This week pray for the SARON MENNONITE CHURCH in Fairview, Oklahoma, with Pastor Arnold Curby and his wife Grace.

Awana continues today at 5:00 PM at the church. It is Family Night with a meal for everyone beginning at 5:00 PM. We need four T&T or Sparks leaders to be here by 4:40 PM in the teen room to listen to the T&T clubbers say their verses. They will say review section 1.6; leaders will teach 2.1 and 2.2 (Leaders, be sure to go over the verses in 2.1 and 2.2.)

Pastor Paul and Carol will be going to Minnesota this week. Jeff Engelman will be preaching next Sunday morning; Joseph Clay and Jeremy Carpenter will be taking the Q&A time after Awana next Sunday evening.

There is NO Q&A Bible Study this Wednesday, October 23, due to a new coating being put on the Awana game floor. The fumes are very strong.

Ladies, there will be a Pampered Chef Bridal Shower for Madison Schlake on Monday, Oct 28, at 6:30 PM here at the church. Aubrey has Madison's wish list; see her if you would like to order online.

The Harvest Missions Festival is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, November 23-24. There will be a meal after the morning service on Nov. 24. The Kitchen Committee in charge is: Cindy, Chuck, Melanie, Carol, and Judy. There is a sign-up sheet on the table if you would like to help with the food.
