Missionary of the Week: Garrett Schlake

*Even though school ended two weeks ago, Garrett has been in confinement there at the school for seven weeks now. He will continue his French studies on his own. The confinement is set to be lifted on May 11, but he says it will probably be extended. He is supposed to move to Toulouse to work with Joanna at the end of June. *All ministries continue online; no group meetings are allowed. Garrett is involved with several small group Bible Studies online with attendance of anywhere from 4 to 10. He also meets 1 on 1 with David, who was born in Africa. His father used to be a Muslim and had demanded that his mother abort him, but she refused and they divorced. David got saved later in life and forgave his dad for wanting to abort him. His father later sought forgiveness from him and now resides in Paris where he and David have a good relationship. *Garrett, Joanna, and many others watched an online Q&A where many honest questions were asked and honest answers given. It lasted for two hours. *There will be another online discussion this weekend about the "end of the world." PRAY that during this confinement, he would get in a rhythm with his schedule. PRAY for the students to keep being encouraged and keep reaching out to their friends. Joanna is having trouble with her group trying to keep motivated. PRAY for them. PRAY for the doctors and nurses that are treating infected patients.
