Announcements

Missionary of the Week: Garrett Schlake

*With the confinement having ended December 15, Joanna and I were able to make a trip to Tours to celebrate Christmas with her folks. *With the 2nd confinement now over, we will continue things online until the number of cases in France has gone down. The government is currently questioning a 3rd confinement after New Years. Pray that there isn't need of one! *Honoris and Paul are two of our student leaders I meet with weekly, along with another guy named Elie who is the regional leader for the students of the southwest of France. *I am currently training Paul on how to share his faith with his friends and classmates, and he has grown so much in the past semester! This growth is not only in his faith but also in taking on ownership of his ministry responsibilities. *Our two groups have continued online this past semester, despite the confinement, and one has even grown! Please pray the momentum would carry over, and we could meet in person one day soon! *Please pray our student leaders would continue to be encouraged and that more non-Christians would join our Bible discussions and that real friendships would be made. I just sent my visa renewal documents in yesterday since all the offices are not accepting in-person renewals. Please pray these documents are accepted! Joanna and I are hoping/praying for the best and planning for the worst with the wedding prep. Please pray that the government is in order so that we can at least be married.
