Announcements

Missionary of the Week: Garrett Schlake

*As of June 1, France has started the "deconfinement" process. We will now be able to travel throughout France without needed paper documents. We solely need to respect distance and wear masks. *Saturday, June 6, we had a conference on singleness/relationships/friendship. *This last week we had an online conference for the southwest of France (Toulouse, Bordeaux, etc.) and it went great! Joanna did an excellent job organizing it and we were 25+ for most the weekend! *I gave my first workshop completely in French at the conference. It went well, and I only stumbled over a few lines, but with it being all in French for 1hr., I'll take it! The students were really engaged, and I was even able to have a Skype call with one this week who had more questions. *Every week we continue to do Bible Studies/ Discussions online. The two I am a part of are going strong, but please pray this would carry on into the coming semester with new student joining! *One embedded culture of mine that I carry over from The Navigators is discipleship. Every week I meet with these two guys and another one named Rayimy to share what's going on in their lives, pray together, read the Bible together, or do trainings on certain aspects of the Christian life. Always a highlight of my week. *Even got the chance to have a reunion/Bible Study with some of the old students from our Navigators group in Tours. Joanna would sometimes come to Navigators meetings as well. Think she liked one of the staff guys. *At the end of June I should hopefully be on my way to Toulouse to begin working with the ministry there! It will also be great to finally be in the same city as Joanna – finally! *Pray that I will find a place to live in Toulouse close to the campuses. Praise—I got my Visa!
